Eva Wilson DNP, APRN, CNP

I started my healthcare journey as a CNA 20 years ago working in different healthcare settings including nursing homes and hospitals. My interest in going back to school and becoming a Nurse Practitioner was motivated by my personal experience during my father's transition.

Dedicated to lifelong learning and patient-centered care, I am passionate about providing holistic, compassionate, individual-focused care and education to patients and their families. I strive to provide high-quality care to all my patients. I love creating a bond with my patients and their families.

Anil Kumar, MD

I have been involved with Family Medicine for over 20 years and appreciate the special bond that I have been able to develop with my patients. I am especially grateful for the opportunity to work with senior patients to provide empathetic and compassionate care. I consider it a privilege to work with seniors and their families. I consider my senior friends to be repositories of living history and learn from them daily. I believe that care of our senior patients is the most rewarding role in the practice of medicine.
